MELBOURNE TAP WEEK

The Weekend Editor Cathy Osmond let out a breathy snigger when I told her I was running a Livelist item on Melbourne Tap Week and made a comment about "faucets". Let's just say I thought at first she was laughing at the word tap for another reason... but that just shows my "maturity". Hosted by Glamour Puss Studios, see/experience tap workshops from Miss Rusty Frank and free performances. US Congress declared May 25 Tap Dancing Day to commemorate the birthday of the so-called grandfather of tap, Bill "Bojangles" Robinson, and this Wednesday tappers will unite. Luna Park, Lower Esplanade; Glamour Puss Studios, 8 Martin St and The Local Taphouse, 184 Carlisle St, St Kilda. Starts today until May 28. Various times/prices/toes.
